

NIG Annual Conference
Leuven, 29-30 November 2012

Panel 11: 'Understanding policy dynamics: advances in theories of the policy process'
Panel convenors: Sebastiaan Princen and Peter Scholten

Panel programme:

Thursday, 29 November (Room: Florquin)

- 13.30-13.40 Welcome and introduction
13.40-14.25 Karin Koole and Barbara Vis
What about the women's movement? Political opportunities, public opinion, organizational characteristics and policy-making
Discussant: Leticia Elias/Arco Timmermans
14.25-15.10 Herman Lelieveldt
How old parties absorb new issues: a comparative analysis of banning ritual killings in Catalonia and the Netherlands
Discussant: Peter Scholten
15.10-15.30 Break
15.30-16.15 Sandra Resodihardjo and Ruth Prins
Surrounded by Safety: Safety as an encompassing policy concept in the Netherlands
Discussant: Karin Koole/Barbara Vis
16.15-17.00 Christoph Klika and Tannelie Blom
An information processing perspective on organizational behaviour and public policy making
Discussant: Herman Lelieveldt
17.00-17.45 Pieter Zwaan and Gerard Breeman
Explaining the application of EU state aid rules; a social-mechanisms based Approach
Discussant: Aneta Spendzharova

Friday, 30 November (Room: Anna)

- 09.30-10.15 Aneta Spendzharova
Power to the European Supervisory Authorities! Explaining the Evolution of European Financial Regulation after 2008
Discussant: Pieter Zwaan/Gerard Breeman
10.15-11.00 Leticia Elias and Arco Timmermans
The evolution of attention and problem definition in the EU: the case of organized crime policy
Discussant: Christoph Klika/Tannelie Blom
11.00-11.20 Break
11.20-12.05 Sebastiaan Princen and Femke Van Esch
Changing Policy Paradigms in Economic and Monetary Union
Discussant: Frank Boons/Wouter Spekkink
12.05-12.50 Frank Boons and Wouter Spekkink
How to study policy dynamics: the promise of Event Sequence Analysis
Discussant: Ruth Prins

12.50-13.00 Closing words